Meetings of Membership

- Section 1. Place: All meetings of the Association membership shall be held at the office of the Association or such other place as may be designated in the notice.

Section 2. Annual Meeting:

(a) The first Annual Meeting shall occur within one hundred (100) days of the recordation of the Declaration of Condominium and annually thereafter. All members of the Board of Directors to be elected by Unit Owners, other than the Developer, shall be elected by plurality vote. The Developer shall have the right to appoint all members of the Board of Directors, unless and until required otherwise by the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and Florida Statutes.

(b) Subsequent to the first Annual Meeting, regular Annual Meetings shall be held in the month of November of each year upon date appointed by the Board of Directors. No meeting shall be held on a legal holiday. At least fourteen (14) days prior to the Annual Meeting, unless a Unit Owner waives, in writing, the right to receive notice of the Annual Meeting by mail, written notice including an agenda, shall be mailed by regular mail to each member of the Association at the address which the Developer initially identifies for that purpose. Where the Unit is owned by more than one person, the Association shall provide notice, for meetings and all other purposes, to the address initially identified by the Developer and thereafter, as one or more of the Unit Owners shall so advise the Association in writing, or if no address is given or the Unit Owners do not agree to the address provided on the deed of record. An officer of the Association or the manager or other person providing notice of the Association meeting shall provide an affidavit or United States Postal Service certificate of mailing, to be included in the official records of the Association, affirming that the notice was mailed or hand delivered in accordance herewith, to each Unit Owner at the address last furnished to the Association. Notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the condominium property at least fourteen (14) continuous days preceding the annual meeting. Upon notice to the Unit Owners, the Board shall, by duly adopted rule, designate a specific location on the condominium property upon which all notices of Unit Owners' meetings shall be posted.

(c) At the Annual Meetings, the membership of the Association shall elect, by plurality vote, a Board of Directors and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The Directors so elected at the Annual Meeting shall constitute the Board Directors until the next Annual Meeting of the members of the Association and the election and qualification of their successors.

Section 3. Membership List: At least fifteen (15) days before every election of the Directors, a complete list of members entitled to vote at said election, arranged numerically by Condominium Units, shall be produced and kept for said fifteen (15) day period and during the election at the office of the Association and shall be open to examination by any member during such period.

Section 4. Special Meetings:

(a) Special Meetings of the members, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute (including, but not limited to, the provisions of Chapter 718.112 (2) (e) and (j), Florida Statutes, regarding the percentage required to call certain special meetings, regarding budget and recall of Board Members), or Secretary at the request, in writing, of members holding not less than twenty five (25%) percent of the voting interest in the Association. Such request shall state the purpose, or purposes, of the proposed meeting.

(b) Written notice of a Special Meeting of members, stating time, place and object thereof, shall be mailed by regular mail to each member entitled to vote thereat, at such address as appears on the books of the Association, at least fourteen (14) days before such meeting. Also, written notice of any meeting at which non-emergency special assessments or at which amendments to rules regarding Units will be proposed, discussed or approved shall be mailed or delivered to the Unit Owners and posted conspicuously on the Condominium Property no less than fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting. Evidence of compliance with his fourteen (14) day notice shall be made by an Affidavit executed by the Secretary and filed among the official records of the Association.

(c) Business transaction at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the purposes stated in the notice thereof.

Section 5. Proxies: Votes may be cast in person or by proxy in accordance with applicable law. Proxies must be filed with the Secretary of the Association prior to the meeting. If more than one (1) person owns a Condominium Unit (such as husband and wife), all must sign the proxy for it to be valid.

Section 6. Quorum: The presence in person or representation by written proxy of the members holding at least fifty (50%) percent of the total voting interest in the Association shall be requisite to and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the members for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by statute, or by these By-Laws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present, the President, or in his absence, the Vice President; or in his absence, any other appropriate officer or director may adjourn the meeting to a time within fifteen (15) days thereof at the same place to be announced at the meeting by the person adjourning same and a notice of such new meeting to be posted conspicuously upon the Condominium Property forty eight (48) continuous hours preceding the meeting. The meeting shall continue to be adjourned in this manner until a quorum shall be present or represented. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, at such new meeting or meetings (if additional meetings are necessary in order to obtain the reduced quorum as hereinafter provided), the presence in person or representation by written proxy of the members holding at least one-third (1/3) of the voting interest of the Association shall be requisite to and shall constitute a quorum at such new meetings; it being intended that, in the event a majority quorum cannot be obtained at any meeting of the members, the quorum requirement be reduced for the purposes of the new meeting or meetings to which the original meeting is adjourned only. At such new meeting or meetings, if necessary, at which a quorum (at least one-third (1/3) of the voting interest of the Association present in person or represented by proxy) exists, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called. Although any proxy shall be valid at the original meeting and any lawful adjourned meeting or meetings thereof, the Condominium Act shall control (in the event it limits the validity of proxies as it presently does for a period no longer than ninety (90) days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given). F.S. 718.112(2)(b)(2).

Section 7. Vote Required to Transact Business: When a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of the Unit Owners total votes present in person or represented by written proxy (subject to the restrictions below) at such meeting shall decide any question brought before the meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provisions of the statutes of the Declaration of Condominium or by these By-Laws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provisions shall govern and control the voting on such issue. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in these Bylaws, the use of proxies shall be restricted as follows: Limited proxies must be used for votes taken to waive or reduce reserves; to waive financial statement requirements; to amend the declaration, articles or bylaws; to elect board members in the case of recall; and for any other matter for which this chapter requires or permits a vote of the unit owners. General proxies may also be used for the purpose of obtaining a quorum.

Section 8. Right to Vote and Designation of Voting Member: If a Condominium Unit is owned by one person, his right to vote shall be established by the recorded title to the Unit. If a Condominium Unit is owned by more than one person, the person entitled to cast the vote for the Unit shall be designated in a certificate, signed by all of the recorded Owners of the Unit and filed with the Secretary of the Association. If a Condominium Unit is owned by a corporation, the officer or employee thereof entitled to cast the vote of the Unit for the corporation shall be designated in a certificate for this purpose, signed by the President or Vice President, attested to by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the corporation and filed with the Secretary of the Association. The person designated in such certificate who is entitled to cast the vote for a Unit shall be known as the "voting member." If such a certificate is not on file with the Secretary of the Association for a Unit owned by more than one person or by a corporation, the vote of the Unit owned by more than one person or by a corporation, the vote of the Unit concerned shall not be considered in determining the requirement for a quorum, or for any purpose requiring the approval of a person entitled to cast the vote for the Unit, except if said Unit is owned by a husband and wife. Such certificates shall be valid until revoked or until superseded by a subsequent certificate, or until change in the ownership of the Unit concerned. If a Condominium Unit is owned jointly by a husband and wife, the following three (3) provisions are applicable thereto:

- (a) They may, but they shall not be required to, designate a voting member.
- (b) If they do not designate a voting member, and if both are present at a meeting and are unable to concur in their decision upon any subject requiring a vote, they shall lose their right to vote on that subject at that meeting. (As provided herein, the vote of a Unit is not divisible.)
- (c) Where they do not designate a voting member, and only one is present at a meeting, the person present may cast the Unit vote just as though he or she owned the Unit individually and without establishing the concurrence of the absent person.

Section 9. Waiver and Consent: Whenever the vote of a member at a meeting is required or permitted by any provision of the statutes or these By-Laws to be taken in connection with any action of the Association, the meeting and vote of members may be dispensed with if the members holding a majority of the Unit Owners total votes which would have been entitled to vote upon the action, if such meeting were held, shall consent in writing to such action being taken; however, notice of such action shall be given to all members unless all members approve such action.

Section 10. Order of Business: Other than the Annual Meeting, the proposed order of business at all meetings of the Association will be:

- (a) Determination of Quorum;
- (b) Proof of Notice of Meeting or Waiver of Notice;
- (c) Reading of Minutes of Prior Meeting;
- (d) Officers' Reports;
- (e) Committee Reports;
- (f) Unfinished Business;
- (g) New Business; and,
- (h) Adjournment.

The first order of business at the Annual Meeting shall be the collection of election ballots, as required by rule 61B-23.0021(10)(a), FAC.

Section 11. Election of Board: The members of the Board of Administration shall be elected by written ballot or voting machine. Except in the case of recall, proxies shall not be used in electing the Board of Administration, either in general elections or elections to fill vacancies caused by resignation, or otherwise, unless otherwise provided in Chapter 718, Florida Statutes. Limited proxies may be used to elect or replace board members in the event of recall. Not less than 60 days before a scheduled election, the Association shall mail or deliver, whether by separate Association mailing or included in another Association mailing or delivery including regularly published newsletters, to each Unit Owner entitled to vote, a first notice of the date of the election. Any Unit Owner or other eligible person desiring to be a candidate for the board of administration must give written notice to the Association not less than 40 days before a scheduled election. Together with the written notice and agenda, the Association shall then mail or deliver a second notice of the election meeting to all Unit Owners entitled to vote therein, together with a ballot which shall list all candidates. Upon request of a candidate, the Association shall include an information sheet, no larger than 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches, which must be furnished by the candidate not less than 35 days before the election, to be included with the mailing of the ballot, with the costs of mailing and copying to be borne by the Association. However, the Association has no liability for the contents of the information sheets prepared by the candidates. The division shall by rule establish voting procedures consistent with the provisions contained herein, including rules providing for the secrecy of ballots. Elections shall be decided by a plurality of those ballots cast. There shall be no quorum requirement; however, at least 20 percent of the eligible votes must cast a ballot in order to have a valid election of members of the Board of Administration. No Unit Owner shall permit any other person to vote his ballot, and any such ballots improperly cast shall be deemed invalid. A Unit Owner who needs assistance in casting the ballot for the reasons stated in Section 101.051, Florida Statutes, may obtain assistance in casting the ballot. Any Unit Owner violating this provision may be fined by the Association in accordance with Section 718.303, Florida Statutes. The regular election shall occur on the date of the annual meeting. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, an election and balloting are not required unless more candidates file notices of intent to run or are nominated than vacancies exist on the board.

Section 12. Unit Owner Participation: Unit Owners shall have the right to participate in meetings of Unit Owners with reference to all designated agenda items. However, the Association may adopt reasonable rules governing the frequency, duration and manner of Unit Owner participation. Any Unit Owner may tape record or videotape a meeting of the Unit Owners, subject to rules adopted by the Division.
